Dear Jimmy,

I think I told you that Copenhagen was my favorite place, but Paris is simply fabulous and some time you will surely get to see it. We felt pretty lost at first but then we bought a map of the city at a news stand last night so when we went on the three hour sightseeing tour this morning, daddy could mark his map and get a pretty good idea of where we were. We went to the Eiffel Tower and every thing is so wonderful.

We decided we didn't care about the night club tour so tonight we went for a long walk along the Seine River and many other places and we were so glad we did just what we did.

We are going to get up early tomorrow and go to the Louvre. We went by it today. Our hotel is located right in the heart of the city. We walked by Maxim's tonight which is a world famous restaurant.

Seeing all the buildings and monuments and hearing about Napoleon and so many things back in the 15th century is unbelievable.

I'm going to bed now and we will drive down to Corvallis soon.

Love,
Mom.
